The Mullan Road

The Government could not invest $100,000 in an enterprise that would more immediately or materially benefit the same number of people than by appropriating that amount to repairing this national road across the Rocky Mountains. Originally constructed by the Government as a military highway at an immense expense, it is now impassable for two hundred miles except for pack animals, and each year is adding to the difficulties of transportation which a small appropriation would entirely obviate. The necessities for it are: 1st, It is the only road crossing the Rocky Mountains north of the 43d degree of latitude, leaving six degrees between Snake river and the British Possessions without other means of communication. 2d, It would connect communities numbering not less than one hundred thousand people, only five hundred miles separate by this route, and two or three times that by any other. 3d, It would give the Walla Walla valley, producing annually from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of grain, 10,000 head of stock and inexhaustible fruits, a good market, four hundred and fifty miles distant, and frequently dependent upon outside supplies. 4th, It would give constant means of transit to Montana merchants and consumers now dependent on the Missouri river, only navigable for a short season each year, and frequently too low for boats to reach the upper ports, and relieve them of carrying over immense stocks or suffering the oppression of triple prices. 5. It would reduce freights from California, Oregon and Washington to Montana, now 25 or 30 cents per pound, to 10 or 12 cents, enabling the transportation of machinery from California at low rates, reducing materially the price of necessaries, and preventing by constant communication, mercenary monopolies of particular and essential articles of consumption during the winter and spring months. 6. The road cost the Government an enormous amount when it was built. It is now an hundred times as necessary as it was then. It will cost but a moderate sum to place it in repair. It is of invaluable importance to large and industrious agricultural and mining communities, can be used at all seasons of the year, and for these reasons we urge the Government to repair it.

The third Legislature of Montana asked an appropriation of $7[illegible],000, the Legislature of Washington Territory asked $100,000 for this purpose, believing these amounts would answer the purpose, and every paper in the northwest has seconded their petitions. While other appropriations and measures are needed and asked for, although hitherto unaccomplished, this takes no second place, and we urge Mr. Cavanaugh to press it in Congress. We ask the "few hot heads" there to give it favorable consideration and make sufficient appropriation to reopen this dilapidated highway. There were once one hundred small bridges on the St. Regis Borgia and Coeur d'Alene rivers on this road, and their "reconstruction" is as essential to us as that of Alabama. There are 1,500 pack animals now picking their way over an abandoned national road, carrying us hundreds of tons of the necessaries of life with an "internal revenue" of fifteen cents per pound on it that benefits no one. We ask redress of these grievances. We ask that an engineer corps be appointed to resurvey the route over the range, and if necessary, in view of a more complete knowledge of the country than existed when Lieut. Mullen's survey was made, and the probable route of the Northern road, to locate it where best adapted to meet its requirements. We ask that $100,00 be appropriated at this Session of Congress to re-establish this great avenue of travel and commerce. We ask it as a matter of justice and economy, in the name of a hundred thousand people directly interested, and in the name of all who are interested in the development of the Northwest, assured the outlay will be an immediate relief to us and ultimately remunerative to the Government.

Act Wisely.

[From the Olympia Transcript.]

If the people of Oregon desire assistance from Congress, if they desire to maintain the principles of right on which the republic is founded, if they wish to be found on the side of humanity, let them send a man to represent them in Congress who adheres to the doctrine enunciated in the Declaration of Independence, a man whose personal honor is above reproach, a man who is in cordial sympathy with the great mass of the American people who are speaking in thunder tones through their representatives, a man who can stand up in the halls of Congress, and with a truthful expression on his face say, I am an advocate of human rights, sent here by an intelligent people who have wants that I am expected to provide for, I am in hearty sympathy and co-operation with those who crushed the rebellion and who are still holding in check the enemies of my country, and in behalf of the people of my state I demand such legislation as is just and equitable.

David Logan fills the bill in every respect, and just such a man as you want is not J. S. Smith. Should he be elected to Congress he would take his seat with the hang dog forty on the side of the enemies of his country, and there he would sit and whine like a sick spaniel, about the equality of the races, the burdens of taxation, the injustice of paying the war debt, the "Constitution as it was," and vote against every Republican measure, whether of general or local good, and the result would be that if he asked Congress for legislation he would get snubbed and told to go to the Democratic party for his assistance, in which case his constituency could not reasonably complain, for it is not expected that an enemy, one who is continually abused and berated by us, will be very anxious to grant us aid even when he might do so without disobliging himself. Joe Smith is continually vilifying Congress with bitterness, yet he asks the people of Oregon to send him as a member of that body where he promises to make himself a Hercules in forcing legislation through that body. Oregon wants and needs much Congressional legislation now that she is just commencing a system of internal improvements, and we do hope that she will elect the right man to represent her. David Logan is the right man.

The remains of Morgan, the defunct guerrilla, passed last week, from Richmond, Va., to Lexington, Kentucky, with great funeral pomp, and were interred with imposing Confederate honors at the latter place. At Washington the body was officially received by the Kentucky delegation in Congress, and regretfully forwarded to weeping Kentucky. The Louisville Courier thus describes the last rites with which "Kentucky placed her heroic son to final rest within her own bosom:"

The streets of Lexington were thronged with earnest men and women whose hearts have gone out lovingly toward the cause which General Morgan died to defend, and many a manly breast was moved to sorrow, and many a bright eye was filled with tears, as the lifeless form passed by, remembering how but a few years ago it towered in the front of battle, or graced with surpassing fascinations the halls where chivalry bowed to beauty. Never, we learn, has a deeper and more touching interest been manifested upon any occasion, and the elite of Kentucky were gathered to pay honor to her most cherished hero. The arrangements were admirably conceived and perfectly executed, and the deceased seemed to preside over this last tribute to his memory. The beautiful sky smiled approval, the balmy air wafted perfumes to his grave—the winds whispered softly, as if not to disturb his rest, and the influence which the chieftain could so wonderfully exert when living seemed to marshal the hosts which gathered around his bier.

At the present day the standing armies of the world are larger than they have been since the great wars of the first Napoleon. The army of the United States now numbers [illegible],000 men in all. France has an "active" army [illegible] men, and "passive" of 550,000, making a total of 1,300,000 men available for war. The British army numbers 200,000, the Prussian army about 600,000, the Italian army 275,000, the Austrian army 700,000, the Russian army 800,000, the Spanish army 80,000. The standing armies of the civilized nations number not less than 3,600,000.

The London Saturday Review praises the speeches of Hon. R. C. Winthrop, and says they surpass those published by any other American.

Gen. Sheridan's brother John was set upon the other night by four drunken rowdies in Somerset, Ohio, and whipped them all. "Blood will tell."

Leonard Jerome, although not as rich as he has been, is not bankrupt yet. He is said to have a million or two left out of the debris of his fortune.

The New York Evening Post, referring to the threat of Dickens to publish an amende story appendix to his American Notes, advises him, gently, "not to overdo the matter."

The London Telegraph pronounces, "on unquestionable authority," all reports of the ill health of the Pope to be wholly untrue. His Holiness is now in excellent health and spirits.

Verdi has written twenty-five operas in twenty eight years. His "Joan of Arc," recently revived in Paris, with Patti as the Maid of Orleans in full armor, is his fifth in order of composition.

Eugenie sneezed twice while entering a recent court ball, and the Paris papers ferociously rebuke the servants for leaving a window open somewhere. Perhaps her majesty had imprudently handled damp teaspoons.

The New York World which is devoting itself to the vilification of Grant, says: "He has never been in the thick of a fight, has never led a charge, has never chivalrously exposed his person to danger." Of course, McClellan did all those things, and that accounts for the World's support of him in the past.

MIXED UP SLIGHTLY.—Here is a little article from the pen of Mark Twain, giving an account of a visit while in New York, to the great Bible House:

"Still on the fifth floor is a huge room with nineteen large Adams' steam presses, all manned by women (four of them confounded pretty, too,) snatching off Bibles in Dutch, Hebrew, Yam yam, Cherokee, etc., at a rate that was truly fructifying to contemplate. (I don't know the meaning of that word, but I see it used somewhere yesterday, and it struck me as being an unusually good word. Any time that I put in a word that doesn't balance the sentence good, I would be glad if you would take it out and put in that one.) Adjoining was another huge room for drying the sheets (very pretty girls in there, and young,) and pressing them (the sheets, not the girls.) They used hydraulic presses, (three of the prettiest wore curls, and never a sign of a waterfall—the girls I mean,) and each of them is able to down with the almost incredible weight of eight hundred tons of solid and unimpure pressure (the hydraulics I am referring to, now of course,) and one has got blue eyes and both the others brown—all mine. I have got this hydraulic business tangled a little, but I can swear that it is no fault of mine. You needn't go to blame me about it. You have got to pay just the same as if it were as straight as a shingle. I can't afford to go in dangerous places, and then get my wages docked in the bargain."

RAILROAD FROM MARYSVILLE TO CHICO.—It is rumored that the California and Oregon Company contemplate building their road on a direct line from Marysville to Chico, crossing Feather river above this city. The Company would thus secure the business of the rich farming lands of Sutter county, a very important matter. If this shall prove correct, Sutter county will soon be provided with a railroad without incurring any debt for it. It would also add a new line of railroad terminating in this city. It would also materially shorten the distance by railroad to the Northern part of the State. Such a location of the line will probably depend greatly upon the business that section of the country will be able to furnish to the railroad. We have no doubt the directors of the Company will fully examine all matters relating to the location, before finally deciding, but in the meantime we presume they will be glad to receive information as to the resources and products of Sutter county.—Marysville Appeal.

CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH.—The late discovery of a cure for whooping cough, by imbibing the odors of a gas house, is found to be of real benefit. It has been tried by some Hartford (Conn.) physicians and it is said with success. The children are taken to the gas works, where they breathe the not very pleasant air there produced, and there is something in the chemical combination that cures whooping cough. The people at the gas works state that during the last twelve months three hundred cases of whooping cough have been thus experimented upon.

The Tribune of Mobile, advocates a Cromwellian treatment of Congress, and putting "Grant and Stanton in charge," and refers to the "20,000 drilled troops of Maryland," and the 2,000,000 of Northern democrats who can raise an army large enough to overawe the regular army of the United States.

Will you not profit by the experience of others? Go not that way. Never be idle. Every moment of your time is a golden one—use it as such. Improve the mind, fix your eyes upon some noble object. Be men. The call is for men: will you not be one of that number who can say—"I am a man?"

A Californian tells this story. A noted trout fisher died in Alameda county not long ago. Fishing was the one idea of his existence. His last words were characteristic: "I say, Brown, I'm going to peg out, sure. I've flirted my last fish, but, but bury my tackle with me—who knows but they bite in Jordan?"

Rev. Joe Smith a Deserter.

[From the Olympia Transcript.]

Smith is generally known as "Carving Jack Smith" from a certain transaction rather discreditable to him, the particulars of which any Oregon man can give. During the Indian war he was living on Whidby's Island, in Washington Territory, and joined there a company of volunteers for the defense of the Territory. Gov. Stevens ordered the company into the field against the Indians. Smith drew his rations very regularly as long as the company was a home company, but as soon as there was a chance for active service he deserted and went to Portland, Oregon, which was deemed the safest place that could be found against the Indians."

We find the above paragraph in the Oakland (Cal.) News and can testify to the truth of the statements. Smith volunteered in company I, W. T. Volunteers, and acted with the company until Gov. Stevens ordered the company into active service. When the captain received the order, Smith and a few other members of the company who had families in the vicinity were temporarily absent from camp. Upon receiving the order the captain ordered an immediate march, sending a messenger to notify the absent members to follow on at once and join the command before entering the hostile country. All of them, except J. S. Smith, obeyed the summons of their captain, but instead of following his company as ordered, he made haste to get out of Gov. Stevens' jurisdiction. The captain reported him as "absent without leave," and continued to so report him; his name stands, to this day, on the old muster roll as a deserter! He professes great loyalty now to the country, but when he had an opportunity to render her assistance, when his services were needed to defend helpless women and children against the merciless savages, instead of standing to his post after joining the army he like a cowardly craven deserted his country and fled for personal safety, and yet the democracy of Oregon are going to vote for him for Congress. We have the facts of Smith's desertion from the captain of the company from which he absconded.

In an official report to his military superior, Gen. Jeff. C. Davis, who commands in Russian America, declares that the harbor of New Archangel, is on the whole, a very good one, though not deep enough for large vessels in low water. The quantity of rain, snow and sleet that falls there, exceeds all experience elsewhere and the amount of work that can be accomplished there in a day is probably less than at any other place in all North America.

SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION OF THE
Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANICS' Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next, in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.

During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and [illegible] arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted, both for display and convenience of the public, of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water-tight, being covered with a shingle roof so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics or the Arts and Sciences, are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition, and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attend such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

By order of the Board of Directors.

Grant and Colfax

The following telegram brings an announcement which will be received with enthusiasm by the Union party of Oregon

CHICAGO, May 21, 1868—6.30 P. M.

TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN:—Grant and Colfax nominated. The platform embraces the main features of the Oregon platform on public faith, suffrage and foreign immigration.

H. W. CORBETT

This ticket will awaken enthusiasm and inspire confidence throughout the whole country. No other names could have been presented combining so many elements of strength. Grant and Colfax will sweep the country triumphantly. There are no better representatives of the Union party,—the great national organization to which the country owes its preservation. Union men of Oregon! let this announcement cause you to redouble your efforts. Grant and Colfax are your leaders, and you are now engaged in a contest which is a precursor of the great struggle. You are contending not merely for the victory in June, but for the greater victory in November! Adopt the motto of Grant, and "move immediately on the enemy's works." Go into the campaign with the determination "to fight it out on this line." A vote for the Union ticket in the approaching State election is a vote for Grant and Colfax in November, a vote for the principles which the loyal men of the nation have so triumphantly maintained since 1861; a vote to finish the work and secure beyond question or doubt, the fruits of the [illegible] conflict. To the front, then, and let your work be done thoroughly. You have only to do your duty and you must win.

[illegible] Public Credit

There are several classes of people in the country who are advancing propositions in regard to the national finances and supporting them, each with their own peculiar arguments. Of these classes we have,

1st. The "out-and-outers" who scorn everything like evasion, and boldly advocate repudiation. These are the hard-shell, bedrock Democrats, whose organs are the Republican, a weekly journal published at St. Louis, the La Crosse Democrat, New York Day Book, etc. This class proclaim their principles in such a manner as to leave no doubt of their purposes. They are that section of the "Democratic" party which cling to the principles that result logically from the position which their party occupied five years ago. They hold that, as the debt was created by an unconstitutional war upon the rights of the South, it is therefore illegal and fraudulent, and ought never to be paid.

2d. The next class are those who in reality hold the principles of the "out-and-outers," but who are anxious to disguise them so as to prevent their defeat. Pendleton is their representative, and they go for cancelling the debt by issuing an unlimited amount of paper currency. This party is less respectable than the former one, inasmuch as it is sailing under false colors and pretending to a desire to pay the debt, when, in reality, it wants to repudiate it, and proposes a course which is practically equivalent to repudiation.

3d. There is another class who propose to use the greenbacks now existing to pay off the bonded debt,—though the method by which this is to be accomplished has never been clearly stated. General Butler may perhaps be called a representative of this class. No way of obtaining the greenbacks for this purpose has yet been satisfactorily pointed out. They could only be had by extraordinary taxation, which the country would not bear. Butler in a recent letter urges his "financial propositions" as the only way to head off the schemes of the Pendleton repudiators. He acknowledges that he adopted this plan as a "counter movement" to prevent a worse result.

If the "Democratic" party, instead of tampering with the public credit and proposing schemes calculated to create distrust as to our honesty and ability to pay the debt, would cease these attacks and join in the endeavor to maintain the credit of the nation, we should be able to bring our national securities of all kinds up to their nominal value in gold, when this whole question would immediately settle itself. The country could then get loans on small interest, and find its profit in solvency rather than in attempts to evade any of its obligations.

Speaking of the outrageous acts of the Copperhead majority in the Legislature of Ohio, the Cincinnati Gazette says: "Ten years ago the Democratic party carried the Ohio Legislature by a majority considerably larger than they now have. They occupied the term much as they are now doing. They passed a visible admixture disfranchising bill, lacking some of the features of this. At the next election the Republicans carried the Legislature by a sweeping majority. The visible admixture bill fell dead for its illegality, and the Republicans relieved the statute book of the disgrace. After an insignificant minority, of ten years, the Democratic party again has the Legislature, and is repeating the knaveries of its last decennial appearance. It seems to be a pestilence, which returns only at intervals so long that we have forgotten its nature. The party is not showing its capacity to govern, but how much mischief it can do. It will go out of the Legislature as it did before, leaving a stench; and as before, it will not return until its infamies are partly forgotten and a new generation has come on the stage, which will have to learn its character by the experience of a single term."

The Journal says the Christian Church of Eugene City propose to erect a brick church building, and the work on it has already commenced. Hon. E. L. Applegate has consented to deliver a lecture for the Church.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 19.

Congressional

CHICAGO, May 19.—The conclusion of the Congressional proceedings were received at a late hour this morning. Stevens offered a resolution requesting the Senate to send to the House the official copy of the last two days proceedings of the Court of Impeachment. An exciting debate occurred, during which Stevens said he had no accusations to make against any Senator, but that there had been some who [illegible] to mend doubt. He wants an opportunity to see who was guilty and who was not.

Ross asked whether Senators would have been justified in perjuring themselves to secure the conviction of the President.

Stevens replied he did not think it would hurt them much. His resolution was finally adopted.

The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to joint resolution for recess.

In the Senate, Buckalew rose to a question of privilege. He spoke at considerable length, bitterly commenting on the proceedings of the House in reference to the Senate, saying the House had recently undertaken to protect not only the interests committed to them, but the dignity and honor of the Senate. He said the Senate was competent to preserve, pure and unsullied, the streams of public justice so far as it was concerned.

Sumner defended the conduct of the House.

Doolittle moved that the Senate respectfully decline to furnish the public its records and ask the House to furnish such facts as they may have, touching alleged improper influences, etc. This was disagreed to.

The question was then taken on motion, to furnish records asked for. Ayes, 19; noes, 6. No quorum.

After an ineffectual effort to secure the attendance of absentees, the Senate adjourned to Thursday.

Washington Rumors.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Times special states that Chief Justice Chase has placed himself in the hands of the Democrats, who are taking measures to run him as their Presidential candidate against Grant.

The Tribune says Chase called at the White House on Saturday afternoon, as did many others.

The World's Washington special gives the following list of new members of the Cabinet, decided upon by Johnson, in case he shall be acquitted on all the articles: Secretary of State, William M. Evarts; Secretary of the Treasury, Groesbeck; Secretary of War, ex-Governor Cox; Secretary of the Interior, Capron, of Illinois; Attorney General, Stanbery. No one is mentioned as Postmaster General.

A dispatch states that Forney has been sent for to return to Washington at the instigation of Cameron, to undergo an examination.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—It is understood that Daniel W. Voorhies, Perry Fuller of Kansas, and General Ewing have been summoned as witnesses by the Impeachment Managers.

Wise Remarks by the "Herald"

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says General Dent states that General Grant has written a letter which will be handed in due time to the President of the Chicago Convention, declining the nomination for President. In this letter Grant states that the only motive which could induce him to accept the position, would be anxiety for the complete restoration of the Union, and that as Executive he could aid in promoting that end; but as that object is now almost accomplished, and soon will be wholly completed, he would rather retain the position he holds, and he hopes the wisdom of the convention may unite on a candidate who will do honor to the party and good for the country.

Aid to the Indians.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A large meeting at Cooper Institute last night, presided over by Peter Cooper, resolved to form a society for the protection and elevation of the Indians in the territories.

Kentucky Fenians.

LOUISVILLE, May 18.—The State Fenian Convention met to-day, General O'Neil, President. The brotherhood made a stirring address. To-night a large ratification meeting will be held in the Courthouse.

West Indies.

HAVANA, May 17.—The Herald's special advices from Hayti to the 8th state that President Salnave escaped from Cape Haytien, April 24th, and managed to reach Port au Prince. He and General Delorme, who acts as Secretary of State, Interior, War and the Navy, arrested many citizens and ordered some to be shot. The stores of six American merchants were robbed by the troops. Salnave threatens to seize the town and burn it to ashes. At the same time he used violent measures to foreign consuls. Many Americans had been shot at in their own windows and were forced to seek refuge in the American Consulate. Hollister and his attaches had an interview with Salnave and Delorme. They demanded protection, but were received defiantly and with threats. The American Minister at once sent a dispatch to Havana for some American men-of-war. He also sent to Jamaica for a British war steamer.

A second dispatch has dates from Port au Prince to the 12th inst. They state that the whole country is reported in arms against Salnave, except Gonoiaves, Jackmel and Cabo.

The revolution in the North has been successful under Leod, General Loget and Cesas. The entire South is now in arms against the Government. At Jackmel, the merchants and shopkeepers were closing their stores. The national forces had blockaded Miragon. The British steam gunboat Phoebe has started from Jamaica to the assistance of the American Minister at Port au Prince.

Venezuelan dates are to the 22d ult. They state that the Venezuelan Congress did not assemble on the 15th inst, there being no quorum. A truce with the rebels was concluded on the 20th. Everything is in an unsettled state. Private property was being seized and stored in arsenals and custom houses to insure the payment of government debts.

A later dispatch states that Congress has come together to complete the amnesty offered to the rebels, the President being allowed discretionary power to treat with them, only stipulating that the existing Government must remain intact.

From Mexico.

HAVANA, May 18.—The steamer Nevada from Vera Cruz, brings dates to the 6th.

The reported capture of General Megrath was premature. The national troops are still in pursuit of that rebel on the border and the remnant of his force. The diligence between Vera Cruz and Orizaba had been stopped by brigands and the passengers robbed.

Tranquility had been restored in the State of Sinaloa. The pacification of the State of Guerrero is still doubtful. The bandit chief Juarez has been executed on Carmen Island. The State Legislature of Tecatera has appropriated $200,000 in aid of working canals. Senor A. Guerra, of the Imperial army was executed at San Tithle, for acts contrary to the law of nations, committed by him during the reign of Maximilian. All the plantations and property of Miramon having been seized under the confiscation law, Government has disapproved of the seizure, declaring the sentence against law, which does not include the confiscation of his property.

The reported attempted escape of Juarez turns out to be a canard. It originated in the removal of some specie in consequence of the fear of an outbreak by the partisans of Ortega within the capital. The estimates of the different Ministers, with a few slight exceptions, are approved. The funding plan proposed by Romero, Minister of the Treasury, does not meet the approval of Congress. The Government of Yucatan have pardoned all persons who took part in the recent rebellion whose rank is below the grade of Major.

Late advices from New Granada report that General Owreland has pronounced against the Government. A movement is on foot to revolutionize the province of Antigena. The bishop of Panama and Bogota will assist at a council of the Prelates of the Church.

It is reported that President Salvor has taken refuge in Port au Prince. He reached that city with only one hundred and fifty men, the balance of his army having deserted. It is now said he has declared that he will burn the town before surrendering. The latest rumor states that he has been arrested by his own troops and delivered to Colon. Ex President Collibras, of St. Domingo arrived at St. Thomas on the 2d.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Herald has advices from Mexico to the 14th. It is rumored that Romero will soon leave for Washington. Congress has decided to grant no more railroad concessions, and the parties interested had left for home. Detectives are ferreting out a conspiracy at the capital to kidnap Juarez. All the foreigners at the capital are highly indignant at the recent outrages on the Americans at Monterey.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 18.—This morning's Post considers the vote on the Eleventh Article a conclusive result in favor of the Democrats and of folly of Radicals, as success was the only excuse for taking such steps. After all if right, it is indicated that the result is due to accident.

The News thinks the vote not conclusive of the whole case.

A respite of one week has been granted to Barrett, the Clerkenwell conspirator, under sentence of death.

LONDON, May 18—Midnight.—In the House of Commons the Scotch Reform bill was under consideration. Baxter, member for Montrose, moved to add to the number of Scotch members in the House, by taking the franchise from some small English borough.

Bourne, member from Kilmarlick, moved that the vote of the House on the bill be thrown out.

Government opposed the motion, and on a division they were beaten in both cases.

Disraeli, after the result of the last decision was announced, said that the Ministry must now consider their position.

PARIS, May 16.—The Emperor has been ill, but his condition is now much improved.

PARIS, May 19.—The news of the acquittal of Johnson on the eleventh article, was received on Saturday evening. Nearly all the papers speak editorially on the subject. The Temps, Democratic, says Johnson was saved by legal forms only. He has been deposed in the minds of the country.

The Journal des Debats says, while Johnson stands acquitted, the vote is such as to render him powerless thereafter.

La Liberte, radical opposition, says, the verdict shows simply that liberty is the best guarantee of justice.

The Constitutionnel, semi official imperialist, regards the vote as fatal to the radical party.

La Epoch was opposed to impeachment from the beginning. It blames the Republicans for attempting the removal of the Executive on grounds so slight, and says a great political party could not have in a more clumsy way lost its prestige.

The Presse austro-catholic, ventures no decided opinion, but confirms the remarks of the Presse, and is struck with admiration at the vitality of republican institutions, which permits a Chief Magistrate of forty millions of people to be brought to trial without bloodshed or national disquiet.

BERLIN, May 18.—In the debate on the treaty with Austria, Bismarck said that while Prussia is applying herself, there is no pressure. She waits for the time when the South German States shall seek a union with the Confederation of North Germany. She condemns the exercise of any restraint upon the free action of Zolverein Diet.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A married woman, Mrs. Nelson, residing on Brannan street, died this morning from taking a solution of caustic potash by mistake.

Important labors are progressing at Lime Point preliminary to the erection of fortifications to face those at Fort Point, and double the protecting force at the mouth of the harbor. On Saturday last a charge of 7,500 pounds of powder was exploded at one time, in two tunnels fifty feet back from the face of a cliff two hundred and fifty feet high. The rocky cliff fell forward from a hight of 175 feet, and 80,000 tons of stone tumbled into the sea.

The San Francisco Abend Post has come out as a German Republican organ, under control of Messrs. Huefner, Lomler & Cohenheim.

The California Pioneers are considering a proposition to abolish all distinction in their membership and make all who came to California prior to its admission as a State into the Union, eligible.

The steamer Oregonian sailed to-day for Panama, with a large number of passengers.

An Italian military company have organized, calling themselves Garibaldians or Compagnia Garibaldina.

Judge Hoffman rendered a decree in the case of the Emperor of the French vs. ship Sapphire, awarding libellant fourteen thousand dollars damages sustained to the French transport La Dryade by collision with the Sapphire in December.

Representation for Columbia, Clatsop and Tillamook.

ST. HELENS, May 20, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

By a vote of the delegates in joint convention, at Astoria, on the 9th inst, the nomination for joint Representative was unanimously awarded to W. D. Hoxter, of Columbia county, whose nomination gives unusual satisfaction to the Union party of this county, and, as I understand, to the Union voters of both the other counties; at all events, it was the vote of their delegates without a single dissent.

Since the action of that convention, Capt. E. G. Adams, (who by the way is a good citizen, but a little prone to act rashly) announces himself an independent candidate for the office. The writer forbears giving the Captain's reasons for coming out in that way, because of their want of logical foundation.

So far as this county is concerned, I should regard this notice wholly unnecessary, because he will get no votes here, but the other counties are equally interested, and the Captain has sent circulars to Clatsop and perhaps to Tillamook stating two things wholly without foundation. The first I will forbear to notice, it being of a personal nature, and as I was wont to believe, far below the dignity of the Captain. In the other he asserts that much disaffection exists in the Union party in this county on account of Hoxter's nomination. Now, Mr. Editor, nothing was ever farther from the truth. The Captain must be exceedingly bigoted, blind, sleeping, or the pliant tool of some one who is disposed to crack a good joke at the expense of the Captain's vanity and self esteem. The truth is, he will not get more than three Union votes in the county—that is, provided he votes for himself! There never was more satisfaction with any nomination than there is here with Hoxter. He will run far ahead of his ticket in this county and carry the inflated Captain to boot.

COLUMBIA COUNTY

Commencement Exercises at Forest Grove.

FOREST GROVE, May 12, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The commencement exercises passed off pleasantly at Forest Grove at the usual time. On the Sunday preceding, the President delivered the usual address to the graduating class. On Tuesday the junior exhibition took place. The pieces were credible to the speakers. Rev. C. C. Stratton, of Portland, followed with an address to the Gamma Sigma Society. It was a firmly developed and suggestive production on the subject of the progress of truth and right. On commencement day, at 11 o'clock, came the regular commencement exercises. The addresses of the graduates, Mr. Charles C. Hall, upon the "Reformation in the Sixteenth Century," and Mr. Thomas H. Tongue, upon "the Growth of the Idea of Free Governments" followed. They would have been creditable to graduates anywhere. The degree of A. B. was then conferred upon them. Rev. L. I. Elliot then spoke to the Alpha Leta Society. The subject "The Man for the West," was most gracefully handled, and the matter was instructive. Then Rev. O. G. Harpending closed with a poem before the Alumni Alumni. The exercises were interspersed throughout with music that charmed, while it gave relaxation from the more serious business of listening to the speaking.

The exhibition that has usually "come off" on these occasions was dispensed with this year. All the exercises had a more dignified character. Indeed, the institution has made, during the past year an advance. A stricter discipline, a more thorough scholarship has been insisted on, and a consequent higher standard of manly character and attainment than heretofore prevailed among the students.

It must be apparent to all that during the last few years there has been a great reform industrially, among the people of Oregon. The time was when men were rushing to the mines and engaging in all sorts of uncertain speculations, with an idea of getting rich in haste and going elsewhere to enjoy their fortunes. The consequence was that many sure, paying interests were neglected, and pursuits most important to the development of the State languished. But a change has taken place, and we now see many branches of industry beginning to receive attention, and men of muscle and patience establishing the foundations of individual and State wealth. Oregon has passed through her spasms and fits of ambition, and will now develop each year new elements of wealth and greatness. Her citizens are settling down to labor and enterprise, and are laying broad and deep the foundations of coming prosperity.

The Lafayette Courier is talking about the finances of Yamhill county. It demands to know if "anybody can tell why every man pays less clerk's fees in this county than anybody else in this county?" Beriah is talking in about the same strain concerning the finances of Multnomah. He and Jasper are applying all their powers to the subject. The result in the case of both is well indicated by the above citation from the Courier.

Speaking of the Chinese in California, the Santa Clara Argus says: "These are the delightful pets which are so cordially invited hither by the far seeing philanthropists at Washington." To which the Sacramento Bee retorts: "And, we may add, by the Democratic Governor of California, and the Democratic Mayor of San Francisco."

A correspondent of the Unionist writes from Independence, Polk county, that the intelligent "Democracy" in that quarter are very much worried about the advent of a worthy and industrious colored man, who has come to work at blacksmithing. They are afraid of negro equality.

Jellison, convicted at the March term of Marion Circuit Court, of an assault, and sentenced to one year in the county jail, was, on Monday, pardoned by the Governor, and released from confinement.

Gen. J. W. Jasper of the Courier seems to think that he has talents for negro minstrelsy. He ejaculates, "Go it blacks! yah! yah!" We fear that Jasper is aiming higher than his talents will warrant.

Every Afternoon says it is proposed to have ladies' trains made separate from their dresses, so that they can be removed and hung in the hall, after being dragged through the dirt, when the wearer wishes to go into the clean drawing-room.

EVERY PERSON SHOULD CLOTHE themselves according to the weather. As the summer advances our citizens should not neglect to procure one of those handsome light-weight suits. KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, have for sale. A glimpse at their goods will convince ladies as well as gents, that they are far superior to any other suits in town and the prices unusually low.

FREIGHT RATES FROM UMATILLA.—The following are the current rates of transportation from Umatilla to the interior towns, are reported to us by John R. Foster & Co., under date, May 19th:

"During the past week there has been more transportation than freight on hand, therefore rates have declined somewhat from last week:

Horse and mule teams to Owyhee, in bars 7½c
Ox teams, " " " 7c
Horse and mule, to Idaho City
" " Centerville
" " Pioneer City $16 ₩ oz., dust, &c.
" " Placerville
Ox teams to the above camps, " " 5½
Mule and horse teams to Boise City 4½ L.T@74c.
Ox " " 4 " "
No freights whatever to Shasta during the past week
Ox, horse and mule teams to Auburn, 4c dust contrates
" " " Baker City ..3c " " "

Pack trains can be had at about the same rates as mule and horse teams for the above camps. There is but little freight on hand, all kinds of transportation plenty."

PERSONAL.—Union men, especially, will regret to learn that Gov. Woods is ill, of inflammation of the lungs—so much so as to be obliged to suspend his public speaking for the present. We learn from the Unionist that Mr. Mitchell filled the Governor's appointment at Silverton. That paper says: "There was a large and enthusiastic [illegible] at Silverton yesterday to hear Mr. Mitchell. The appointment was made for Governor Woods, but in consequence of illness he was unable to attend, and Mr. Mitchell, who arrived in town on Monday evening, generously consented to fill the appointment. Mr. Mitchell made one of his happiest efforts in a speech of about two hours duration, without note or previous preparation, and we only repeat the expression of all who heard him, when we say that an abler address on the politics of the country, past and present, was never made in Marion county. The crowd were delighted, with the exception of a few of the Species who retreated early in the action, and with the utmost precipitation. Judge Powell was got out and made a brief address, when the audience [illegible] with three rousing cheers for each of the speakers and for the whole Union ticket."

[illegible] MAN.—A story is told of an "independent [illegible] voter" who called at a certain [illegible] in this city, being in that comfortable condition [illegible] as "half seas over," while his senses were [illegible] not at all perceptive. Approaching the gentleman in charge, the "sturdy Democrat" demanded a [illegible]. The gentleman in charge not understanding why he should donate a dollar to the particular individual then and there in audience, made a counter demand for an explanation. The devoted admirer of the "time honored [illegible]" explained his position by asking, "Why, aren't I a can'date for leg'slater?" The gentleman assured the Democratic voter that he was not a candidate and that the voter was probably mistaken in his man. [illegible] upon the embodied resolutions of '98 reeled himself into the street.

THE RACES.—The race advertised to come off yesterday [illegible] "Vallandigham" and "Pilgrim," was postponed till next week, and the former was entered by consent for the [illegible] with "Jack Miner" and the "Boise Mare." Several [illegible] were made and the mare went around the track once alone, and twice followed by Vallandigham, but no start of the three could be had, and after a deal of [illegible] the whole affair ended and the crowd left thoroughly disgusted. We cannot learn that any race was run by either of the horses named. The crowd, however, had some compensatory fun in a scrub race.

BUILDING.—While it is the subject of general remark that mercantile business, and, in fact, nearly every other kind of business, is dull in this city, it is also quite remarkable that building is going on with unusual briskness. Beside the several large brick stores, heretofore [illegible] as going up, there are a great number of dwelling houses, large and small, in course of erection. Many of these are large fine structures and will be finished in elegant style. It is said that there is so much [illegible] just now, that it is difficult to get carpenters for small or chance jobs.

HAND CUT.—Yesterday morning, Mr. William [illegible], a foreman of a gang of hands on the west side railroad, met with a severe accident while assisting a laborer [illegible] down a bank. He was holding a wooden block as [illegible] while the workman struck it with an axe. [illegible] the bank about to fall away, he started to get away, and in doing so accidentally placed his hand on the block just as the axe descended. His hand was of course badly cut, and he was obliged to come to the city for aid.

[illegible] MACHINERY.—The greater part, if not all, the machinery for the P. T. Co.'s new steamer Albany, was hauled down from the Oregon Iron Works, yesterday, to the wharf, by Wallace & Holman's trucks. It is very finely finished machinery and as it passed along the [illegible] considerable remark, expressive of just pride in this branch of Oregon manufacture. There is no [illegible] any question that as good machinery as can be made anywhere can be produced in this city, from Oregon iron.

DALLES AND CANYON STAGE LINE.—A gentleman just down from Canyon City, having traveled by the line of stages lately put on by Messrs. Lockwood & Edgar, says that these gentlemen are entitled to much credit for having greatly improved the traveling facilities between these two towns. They have improved the road, have good stock and coaches and careful drivers, and have [illegible] the trip every way a pleasanter one than formerly, as well as shorter, in time.

A CAPSIZING CASE.—Last evening Mr. John [illegible] and another gentleman, with two ladies were out sailing, and when nearly opposite the gas works, met with a flaw which capsized their boat and threw the [illegible] into the water. They, however, clung to the boat and rigging till assistance reached them from the shore. They were taken up by a couple of boats from the [illegible] Iron Works. All the parties exhibited [illegible] presence of mind.

I. O. G. T.—The following is a list of the officers of East Portland Lodge, No. 60, I. O. G. T., for the term [illegible] July 31st, 1868: E. D. Bones, W. C. T.; Miss [illegible], W. V. T.; Geo. W. Smith, W. S.; Peter [illegible], W. F. S.; Lavina Williams, W. T.; Wm. [illegible], W. M.; Mrs. E. Anderson, W. I. G.; Pennington Kelly, W. O. G.; Miss Clara Starr, W. R. H. S.; Mrs. [illegible], W. L. H. S.; Miss Eva Cason, W. A. S.; H. [illegible], P. W. C. T.

THE RIVER.—For the last few days the Columbia has been rising rapidly and backing up the waters of the Willamette. Within the last twenty-four hours, the river has risen not less than a foot, and the water is now but little below the wharves at the northern part of the city. It is not, however, anticipated that the rise will be so great as has been usual in past seasons.

LEAVING [illegible].—The Colonist mentions the departure from Victoria of Mr. E. G. Marsh, the theatrical manager, and says the troupe of which Mr. and Mrs. Stone, lately here, are members, are to leave also. Their destination is said to be China. It had been the intention of the [illegible] to visit Portland previously during the month of June.

[illegible].—Arrived yesterday, per steamer [illegible] 10 gunnies and 16 cases bacon, 5 boxes and 10 [illegible], 20 boxes eggs, 1 bale furs, 4 bales woolen [illegible], half bbls dried apples, 9 hlf bbls and 3 cases [illegible] and 1 hlf bbl unspecified produce, and 5 [illegible]. Per Wenat, 12 boxes apples. Per Alert, [illegible], 301 bags wheat and 380 sks oats.

[illegible] TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Gould informs us that the [illegible] telegraph line is finished to a point [illegible] seventy-five miles of the Dalles. The construction [illegible] is now being built is ex[illegible] rough [illegible] construction is slow. It is expected that the line will be [illegible] to Dalles about the 5th of June.

[illegible] WRECKED.—While the crowd were rushing on board the ferry boat, yesterday afternoon, everybody in haste to be on the race grounds in advance of everybody else, a hack came in contact with Mr. Sherlock's buggy and broke one of the spindles. That buggy didn't go to the races.

[illegible] PICNIC.—The teachers and pupils of the [illegible] Sunday School will have a May picnic on [illegible] the 23d inst.—to-morrow. The [illegible] will leave Vaughn's wharf, for the island, at [illegible] A. M. precisely, carrying excursionists. [illegible] invited to attend the picnic.

ORCHESTRAL [illegible] SOIREE.—The regular semi-monthly [illegible] of the first class will be held at the Cardinell's Hall this (Friday) evening at 8½ o'clock. Members of the Club are requested to be prompt. Guests will not be [illegible] without ladies.

[illegible] IRON WORKS.—We learn that the Oswego Iron Works which have been for some weeks undergoing repairs, will resume active work again in the course of the [illegible] week. A new hearth has been supplied to the furnace.

BOUND TO SEA.—The bark Rainier having procured her [illegible] of seamen, will be towed down to Astoria to-day by the John H. Couch. The [illegible] has completed loading at Oak Point and will, also, be towed down to-day.

[illegible] SALMON.—It is stated that the firm of Hapgood, [illegible] & Co., of the salmon fishery near Oak Point, has [illegible] shipped eight hundred cases of canned salmon of this year's catch.

[illegible] the Road is said to be again open to travel [illegible] cattle and [illegible] up have already passed [illegible] for Eastern Oregon.

[illegible] It is reported that Capt. Baughman's new boat will be ready for launch by the last of next week.

[illegible] OF GRANT AND COLFAX, get ready for the [illegible] meeting on Monday night!

LAST OF THE SEASON.—Received per steamer Ajax, a large and elegant invoice of Ladies' Latest Styles Silk Circles, which are offered regardless of San Francisco cost. [illegible] avail themselves of this splendid opportunity [illegible] purchase a fashionable cloak at very low figures [illegible] lot of Straw Goods on same terms. Call and [illegible] at Mrs. Levy's, No. 87 First street.

[illegible] IN WANT OF PHOTOGRAPHS, we would say that now is a first-rate time to visit Buchtel's Gallery, where the latest and finest styles may be had—J. H. Montgomery, operator.

General Grant, some months ago, issued a general order relating to the cultivation of gardens for the use of the army, which requires commanding officers of posts, at or near which suitable public lands are available, to set aside for company or post gardens such extent of those lands as may be necessary for the production of vegetables for the command, and to cause the same to be cultivated by the garrison. The subsistence department is authorized, upon proper requisition, to procure for such company seed potatoes, garden seeds and agricultural implements necessary for establishing, cultivating and perpetuating company or post gardens.

Any one who may have chanced to see an old copy of Webster's spelling-book, and remembers the grim portrait that used to adorn it will appreciate an anecdote told in the Atlantic Monthly for April. It is said that William Cobbett bequeathed to Noah Webster the sum of fifteen dollars "to enable him to procure a new engraved likeness of himself for the book, that children may no longer be frightened from their studies." It is an odd coincidence that time and the editors have not only effaced Mr. Webster's original features from the outside of his Spelling-Book, but also from the inside of his Dictionary.

Ladies' Relief Society of Portland.—In order that this Society be more widely known, the Ladies have thought best to publish, by request, its object, officers, &c., so that any needing assistance may know whom to apply to. It has now been in operation one year. Its object is through a systematic and organized movement, to provide for the relief of want and destitution in our midst. Its officers consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, an Advisory Committee of five persons, and a Visiting Committee of three persons from each ward of the city. An Initiation fee of $2 and a monthly fee of 25 cents constitutes a member. Any one may become a member by the payment of $10. The names of Advisory Committee are as follows:
MRS DE HART, MRS B. AINSWORTH,
MRS WADHAMS, MRS. MASTERS,
MRS MANN.
The poor may apply to either of these persons for assistance.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.
OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.
I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the Improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 1867, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.
N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.
N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.
In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the "Baptist Messenger," relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed, and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest, all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer. London Times.
Rev. J. B. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."
Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes: "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." m1daw1m

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels; Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S Bitters also produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and put on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

A Young Man Ruined by Generosity, Marries a Million or Two.

M. De Pene narrates in the Independance Belge the following extraordinary story:

I knew a young gentleman named, I will say Charles, who has been the hero of a singular romance. On coming of age he entered on a Parisian life with 25,000 francs yearly. Forty years ago the young man in Paul de Kock's romance played on Saturdays on six thousand francs, rolled in curricles and kept danseuses. Times are changed since then, and Charles could not keep a carriage nor a stylish danseuse, and no one ever spoke of his losing money at the club. But he contrived to ruin himself. He went into the world, he went to the club, and kept a mistress, but did all this within his means. His weakness was that of lending to any one who asked. He was never repaid, and when he found his fortune more than half gone, instead of economizing, he tried speculating in stocks, at which he lost continually.

Nearly ruined, he had nothing of the air of an unlucky fellow. He went to the first ball of the carnival. There a lady in a black satin domino and masked, showed marked preference for his society. Through her mask it was evident that her eyes and teeth were magnificent, and her figure was tall and elegant, while a hand neatly gloved waved in graceful gestures. For two hours the couple passed time delightfully.

"Let us go to supper," said Charles.

The lady unmasked and displayed a face which stops growing old at thirty, though its possessor may be forty. Its lines were perfectly statuesque, and the young man thought he had never seen a more enchanting woman. Suddenly she [illegible] him by saying:

"I have a son of your age."

This was startling, nay incredible. The lady continued:

"I am a widow, and for reasons which I will explain, I have had occasions to make the strictest inquiries as to your life. I find that you have been ruined, not by vice, but by generosity, and that you have rare talents, and are in every respect, save your recklessness, a man to be loved and esteemed. My husband left me two millions of francs, and I have a charming daughter. There are family reasons, unknown to you, which give you a right to our intimacy and a share in our fortunes."

[illegible] were very singular. The lady's [illegible] had been a steward to the grandfather of Charles, and not a very faithful steward, since he had, by abusing his trust, made a fortune and run away to Poland. Here he increased this ill-gotten capital, and married into a rich and noble family. Here he died, leaving the two millions, the wife and children.

The [illegible], who kept his history, employed a secret agent to ascertain if Charles was a deserving young man, and found that he was something more. The young man married her daughter and now all goes well.

More Robinson Crusoes.—In November last, the brig Amherst, from New Zealand, picked up a boat with ten men near Enderby Island, one of the Auckland group, and they prove to be probably the only survivors of [illegible] and a crew of twenty-seven [illegible] who sailed in the ship General Grant [illegible] for London May 4th, 1866; and the vessel had not been heard from till the Amherst picked up these men.

It seems that the General Grant in passing the Auckland Islands, got into a dead calm, and on the 14th of May, in spite of every exertion, floated [illegible] and nearer the rocky coast, and finally settled into an immense rocky cavern and was wrecked. Two boats were swamped, but the other two got to land with a part of the provisions saved from the wreck. A cold [illegible] rain was falling, and many of them were poorly clothed and some [illegible]; hence a fire was one of the [illegible] to be [illegible]. They had but [illegible] match, and the [illegible] care was [illegible] to procure [illegible] and to protect the [illegible] flame when [illegible], and the fire [illegible] was not allowed to go out for [illegible]. Two or three birds [illegible], and a few limpets, which these poor shipwrecked people heartily enjoyed. [illegible] huts were also discovered, which had probably sheltered other sufferers. Their [illegible] and lack of food brought on [illegible], which caused terrible suffering. But they [illegible] gradually and began to adapt themselves to their new position. They caught seals enough to live on, and made their skins into garments and shoes, and they [illegible] in making salt. They found rabbits on one of the islands, also some pigs which they contrived to catch by means of an ingenious sort of hook, and they finally became quite comfortably supplied with food.

One of their number died in September last, and previously, one boat with four men, including Bartholomew Brown of Newburyport, Massachusetts, the chief officer, had left the island, hoping to reach New Zealand; but they have not been heard from since. Several vessels had passed in sight without noticing their signals, and their signal fires [illegible] by the Amherst, but the islanders put off in a boat and succeeded in reaching her. The whole story is a most remarkable one, and a fine illustration of the oft repeated [illegible] fact is stranger than fiction.

John Esten Cooke, in an article in Southern [illegible], [illegible] Washington Irving as once saying to him of the present Empress of the French: "What a strange world this is! I knew the [illegible] when she was a child—little Eugenie de Montijo—and have often had her on my knee in Madrid. Her father was the Count de Teba; when his brother died he took the name of Montijo. Afterwards I saw Eugenie again. She was a fine, dashing girl, with a beautiful figure, fine bust and shoulders. She used to appear at the balls in Spain in the character of a female mousquetaire. I was [illegible] Washington lately, and Calderon—I knew him well in Spain—said: 'Good heavens, [illegible] Just to think! Little Eugenie Montijo [illegible] (thump! thump!)"

The [illegible] gave a banquet to [illegible] April 18th. Greeley [illegible] presented, [illegible] for his [illegible], because [illegible] had been given the seat of [illegible], however, to make up for [illegible], gave a dinner at his [illegible] so that the boys [illegible] happiness.

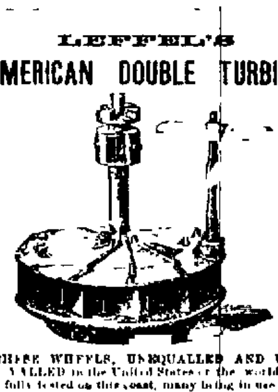
LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



WATER WHEEL!

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"Mr. A. Myers: In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another tier of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets, whether at all or with a third or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours, DODGE & MUNN."

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON [illegible] this, and will give to each [illegible] at a written instrument, binding [illegible] effect a [illegible] and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has [illegible], and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high-priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature.

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over-shot and three Leffel wheels 10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffell wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 ft of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel; but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance: while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gates one third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motive; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms; Weakness of the back and limbs, languishing feelings, loss of muscular power, nervousness, irritability, cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head, symptoms of consumption, short breath, flushings of the face, aversion to society, confusion of the mind; loss of memory; nightly emissions; roloriess, slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your system and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights succeed days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to assume sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated show a record unsurpassed by any hospital in the world, and the success that has invariably marked the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that those poisonous drugs, by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be, "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed—consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and and faithful nurses.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.
